

You Know My Heart Is Not Too Proud

Responsorial Song from Psalm 131 for Sunday 31A

1st time: Psalmist (Cantor) from the ambo

Tony Barr

In you a - lone, I have found my rest.

You know my heart, O God, not too proud,
nor do my eyes look beyond my place.
Mighty deeds had no thrill for me,
all things are beyond my dream.

Instead, I choose the peace of silence,
like a child at its mother's breast.

Yes, my soul, as the child trusts,
finds peace in your arms, O God.

And hope in God, the One Who calls us,
Who knows us well, each of us by name.
Trust in God every day you live,
Who alone holds us in life.
