

My Soul Is Thirsting for You

Tony Ward

My soul is thirsting for you, thirsting for you, O God.

1. Eagerly I seek you,
as deserts long for water
How I long to see you in your sanctuary
to see your power and glory
to know your love and kindness
because your mercy is greater than life.
How joyful I am to praise you,
for you have helped me
and I will live rejoicing in the shadow of your wings.
Your right hand upholds me;
your justice sustains me
against all who seek to bear suffering upon me.
My flesh and my spirit cry out for your presence:
How I long to know your joy!
