

A VINE FROM EGYPT

Song from Psalm 80 for Sunday 27A
for Cantor, Descant & Assembly
Keyboard, Flute & Guitar

TONY BARR

*You chose a vine from Egypt:
the House of Israel.*

You have chosen a vine out from Egypt
which you brought to this land through the sea.
And from its borders you drove out the nations,
you cleared the ground, tilled the soil that it may grow.

It took root there and spread through the land,
covering mountain and valley with growth.
It stretched its branches as far as the sea,
to the Great River it spread out all its fruit.

So then why did you break down strongholds
to be plundered by those who pass by?
See how the wilderness of pasture and the land
have torn it down, ramparts into the dust.

Turn again, and remember your people,
and look kindly on those you have chosen.
In your compassion, restore us to fortune,
do not forget all who spoil and rape the earth.

May we never forsake you again.
May we live to proclaim your abundance!
In your good pleasure come now and reclaim us,
and let your face shine on us, come set us free.
