

From The Depths I Call Out Your Name

Responsorial Song from Psalm 130 for Lent 5A

Tony Barr

Turn to God for mercy, and you will find peace.

From the depths I call out your Name,
do you listen to my cry?

Open your ears to my cry, to my voice,
and you then abandon me?

Have you seen each and every day?
And how I flee away?

You promised, 'I Shall Be There.'

And for this we turn to you with joyful hearts.

Thine in you, I place all my trust,
in your word I find my hope.

As watchman waits for the dawn,
even more I look out for your coming here.

Deep in you is justice and truth,
In your love I am restored.

Soon comes the day of release,
when our dreams unfold within a living land!
