

JUSTICE, THE WORD OF GOD IN OUR HEART

Responsorial Song from Psalm 33 for Reading 1 Easter Vigil
for Cantor, Assembly & Descant with Keyboard, Flute & Guitar

TONY BARR

The earth is full of the grandeur of God.

Justice, the word written deep in our heart!
How rich the radiant wonders there in our sight!
Great beyond measure, a hero for the just,
who fills the earth with each day with love.

Who made the heavens, who made the earth,
touching Creation with the breath of life,
carving the mountains, the trenches for the oceans,
painting the sky each day with dawn.

Happy are we who live in thanksgiving,
chosen ambassadors of justice and peace.
All who now gather in awe to praise such Wonder
shall be affirmed each day with love.

Day after day we have turned to the One
Ageless, Unseen, Who protects us from harm.
Joy over flowing - where none among us,
is the Unseen, each day with peace.

Trust, Nameless One of desire,
hither yet present with the light, ev'ry deed.
Mercy, compassion you show upon us,
bathing and each day with light.
