

I Rejoiced When I Heard The Call

Responsorial Song from Psalm 122 for Christ the King

Tony Barr

I rejoiced when I heard the call,
"let us go to Jerusalem!"

Now, we pass through the holy city, the house of God, then within our sight.

Let us sing of thy precious city,
built from the ruins,

I delight in the sight before me,
most ancient stone standing firm, compact.

Generations have gathered here, come each year for the Festival,
to give praise to the God among us, whose throne of justice is in this place.
