

Embrace Us

MARK MELLIS

VERSES 1, 2, 4, 5, 7

1. When nights are cold and win - ter long when
2. When we be - gin to cough and
4. When shad - ows fill a voice-less th, when
5. The Prun - er's blade seems harsh at least when
7. When King - dom's door is not shut tight, our

1. win - ter's old dark - ness strong, when
2. A - dam's sin takes seem lost, with
4. time stands still and death gives birth, de -
5. rea - son fades and prom - ises cease. Al -
7. hope will soar beyond our sight. God

1. fear is bold and rig seems wrong;
2. an - ger's wind of lives are tossed;
4. fense that kills di vides our worth; } em -
5. might - y's ne brings peace;
7. of the and God of might;

brace us with your love. _____

VERSES 3, 6 (Choir)

3. Dreaming of daybreak, wondering when darkness and hunger will end. (to verse 4)
6. Slaves and broken, still there's no shame;
proudly we bear Christ, our name. (to verse 7)

Music and Lyric: Mark Mellis, b. 1959, © MCMXCI, Mark Mellis.

Published by the Phoenix Liturgical Arts Center (PLACe).

434 W Rio Salado Pkwy, Unit 337. Tempe, AZ 85281. All Rights reserved. Used with permission.