

God, You Are My God, For You I Long

Responsorial Song from Psalm 63 for Sunday 32A

Tony Barr

I thirst for you, my God; I long to see your face

God, you are my God, for you I long,
my soul thirsts for you alone.

Always, my heart pines for you like the parched, weary land, craving water.

I look to your Holy Place,
to your power and glory.

I remember you as I lie on my bed,
all night my thoughts turn to you.

Your mercies have kept me in safety,
in the shelter of your wings I delight!

Longing to you for protection,
your name and shall guide and keep me.

My life is a blessing to you,
my hands raised in song to your name.

You can find me with joy at my banquet,
every breath that I take shall praise you!

What are my days without your love?
My lips make constant thanksgiving;

Let all who try to destroy my life
be wiped from the face of the earth.

Your power drives injustice to flight,
the proud tumble down to the dust.

The just shall rejoice in your presence,
only the living shall give you glory!
