

Psalm 65

Anthony Ruff, OSB

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Psalm Tone

Mode 1

[A] [B] [D]

Psalm 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14. R/ Lk 8:8

1. You have visited the earth and greatly have you enriched it; God's watercourses are filled, you have prepared the grain. R/
2. Thus have you prepared the land: drenching furrows, breaking hard soil, softening it with showers, blessing its yield. R/
3. You have crowned the year with your bounty, and your paths overflow with a rich harvest; the meadows are filled with it, and rejoicing clothes the fields. R/
4. The fields are planted with flocks and the meadows are planted with grain. [optional] shout and sing in joy. R/